Champion of IIEC GLOBAL 2018 Intellectual Property Innovation and Entrepreneurship Contest:

Novus Life Sciences

Novus is a biotechnology company dedicated to the R&D and promotion of bone health and related technologies. Being a graduated company of Incu-Bio at Hong Kong Science and Technology Park, we specifically expertise on osteoarthritis, a degenerative disease on knee joint. Apart from our own biomaterial solution, we work with other industry partners of the bone technologies to provide a diagnostic solution to the disease and develop a complete treatment strategy of osteoarthritis. Based on machine learning from AI, our diagnostic system evaluates the knee joint condition and identifies different stages of osteoarthritis to facilitate and optimize the diagnosis process.

Winners of Startup Express Pitching Contest 2019:
